- I will obey the laws of the game and play within the spirit of the laws.
- If I don't understand the laws, I will attempt to learn them so I can become a better player.
- (Males) For Co-Ed leagues, in consideration of social standards and size disparity, I will respect the safety of all female athletes and play as a gentleman at all times.
- I will control my temper. I will not assault others or use foul or abusive language or inappropriate gestures.
- I will treat other players, coaches, officials, and fans with respect regardless of race, sex, sexual orientation, or ability, and I will expect to be treated accordingly.
- I will not, under any circumstances, participate in physical violence or threats of physical violence before, during or after any game.
- I will demonstrate fair play and good sportsmanship at every game and tournament. I will also encourage fair play and good sportsmanship from other players, coaches, and officials.
- I will remember that winning isn't everything, that having fun, playing fair, improving my skills, making friends, and giving my best efforts are the most important aspects of soccer.
- I will do the best I can each day, remembering that all players have talents and weaknesses, the same as I do.
- I will be modest and respectful when I win, and gracious when I lose. I will acknowledge all good play - that of my team-mates and of my opponents.
- I consider it a privilege to be a part of US Club Soccer and my actions will reflect credit upon that organization and its affiliates.
- Remember the actions of yourself and your team is reflective of the perception others take away with them.
